Young Dramatists Society, in Association with Kashmir Govt. Polytechnic College Srinagar, Successfully Organises Theatre Seminar on "Modern Theatre & Youth of Kashmir."

The Young Dramatists Society, in association with Kashmir Government Polytechnic College, Srinagar, successfully conducted the Theatre Seminar on "Modern Theatre & Youth of Kashmir" today at the College Auditorium, Gogji Bagh.

The seminar commenced at 10:30 AM and witnessed enthusiastic participation from theatre professionals, students, faculty, and staff of the institution. Dr. Shafquat Ara, Principal of Kashmir Government Polytechnic College, graced the occasion with her presence.

On this occasion, Dr. Shafquat Ara, Principal of Kashmir Government Polytechnic College said that such seminars play a vital role in connecting the youth of Kashmir with theatre and performing arts. She emphasised that modern theatre provides a powerful platform for young people to express themselves, discuss contemporary issues, and contribute to the cultural growth of the region. She encouraged students to actively participate in theatre activities and explore innovative approaches to the art form.

The programme aims to bring together playwrights, directors, critics, and the youth of Kashmir to discuss contemporary issues in theatre and explore innovative approaches to modern theatre practice in the region.

A key objective of the seminar is to connect the younger generation with theatre and create greater awareness about the importance of theatre and performing arts.

Souvenirs were presented on the occasion to the guests and participants as a token of appreciation.

The Young Dramatists Society and Kashmir Government Polytechnic College, Srinagar, express their gratitude to all those who attended and supported the initiative.
